

GLISI Consultant Position Summary

ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTION

GLISI is comprised of a dynamic group of school and district leadership experts, researchers, and non-profit management professionals. Our consultants apply their diverse talents to advance the mission of uplifting school leaders, transforming mindsets and actions, creating vibrant cultures of innovation which, we believe, leads to building more excellent and equitable schools. GLISI works to achieve this mission by growing strong leaders, convening learning networks, building better teams, and improving the education system.

Consultants are contracted by GLISI to lead our partners towards higher performance by asking the right questions, offering targeted and specific feedback, and sharing knowledge relevant to the unique challenges our partners face. Consultants will serve as 1099 - independent contractors - and are scheduled based on availability and client demand. There is no guarantee of immediate work.

PRIMARY DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Coach individuals and teams of various types and configurations
- Facilitate and meet design for team, cohort, or community types of sessions
- Provide technical assistance which includes, but is not limited to:
 - Product or asset development
 - Curriculum design
 - Research support
 - Program evaluation

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- At least 3 years of coaching, facilitation, or leadership development experience
- Demonstrated understanding of diversity, equity, inclusion, and cultural competence issues in education
- Ability to give and receive constructive real-time feedback
- Ability to handle multiple assignments and projects effectively
- Familiarity with change leadership processes
- Strong scheduling, organizational, and technological skills
- Ability to work individually and as a team member
- Ability to foster collaborative environments
- Ability to build strong relationships with others